Staffing Update

At this time of the school year our school faculty already looks ahead to the start of the 2020-2021 school year. We are welcoming back our entire faculty of preschool, homeroom and specials teachers, continuing together our prayers for Mrs. Kelly and her transition to the Boston area. Mrs. Kelly will remain a keystone in the foundation of classical learning that has been established at St. Thomas these last two years.

We are very pleased to introduce to our St. Thomas School Community, Ms. Celestine Kreifels who will be teaching our amazing, upcoming first graders. My thanks to Fr. Bill, Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Robitaille for their help in our interview process. Ms. Kreifels graduated from Wyoming Catholic College in their classical liberal arts Great Books Honors program. Ms. Kreifels has classical teaching experience in both the lower and upper school grades and enjoys helping students experience the wonder of seeing how all learning is connected. Ms. Kreifels is also a talented baker! We look forward to an opportunity for our students and parents to meet Ms. Kreifels before our new school year begins. Welcome to St. Thomas Ms. Kreifels!

St. Thomas Daily Noon School Mass Online

Our students can still attend Noon Mass celebrated by Fr. Bill which is livestreamed daily via Facebook or YouTube. Our students can participate in a spiritual communion that is included in the Mass at the time of communion. Mass runs from Noon to about 12:30 PM. Our St. Thomas Parish Communications Director, Ms. Theresa Walle, is encouraging all of us to visit, like and subscribe to our St. Thomas accounts. Be blessed~!
