

ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE CATHOLIC SCHOOL

You are cordially invited to the 2019

Laura M. Steffy
Scholarship Gala

Friday, May 10th at 7 PM

The Gandy Dancer • 401 Depot Street

Join us as we honor the service of Mrs. Steffy and celebrate her 15 years of loving support to our students, families and staff! Our celebration will include four course dinner (with your entree selection), cash bar, presentation by Joseph Pearce, and silent auction fun. Your ticket purchase will help support families seeking a Catholic Education for their children at St. Thomas School. Thank you!

Our Guest Speaker: Joseph Pearce “A Literary Feast for the Catholic Mind”

Take an evening's tour with Joseph Pearce through the world's rich deposit of stories directing the reader back to The Story—the Story of Salvation History—because this is what great literature does. Joseph Pearce will be our joyful guide on this brief pilgrimage through the literature every Catholic should know. Learn about everything from the Greek epics to Shakespeare's plays to Tolkien's famous trilogy, and along the way visiting Dante's Italy, Cervantes's Spain, Dostoyevsky's Russia, and Jane Austen's England.

Joseph Pearce is the nationally known author of over twenty books including Tolkien: Man and Myth, In Quest of Shakespeare, Literary Converts, & biographies of G.K. Chesterton, C.S. Lewis, and Hilaire Belloc. He is Director of the Center for Faith & Culture and Writer in Residence at Aquinas College, Nashville, TN.

Join in the Silent Auction!

Items from our preschool, classroom and specials teachers—including 'Mrs. Steffy for a Day', 'Headmaster for a Day', 24/7 Reserved Parking Spot, Varsity Camp Certificates, and much more.

Purchase tickets online at www.eventbrite.com.
